HUN TROOPS PLAN TO RULE GERMANY

Vote in Berlin to Call Own Congress,
Reject Ebert

London, Nov. 21.—The Berlin soldiers' and workmen's council today passed a resolution demanding the summoning of a general Silesian and Workmen's Congress in order to make a decision as to the future of Germany," says an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Copenhagen. Chancellor Ebert and other moderates, the advices add, desperately tried to change the opinion of the council, but the extreme elements appeared to be in the great majority. The council's resolution also rejected the plan to summon a Constituent Assembly.

In other German towns the extremist agitation is reported to be growing.

WANT U. S. TO INTERVENE

Washington, Nov. 21.—A delegation of Roumanian Jews of America asked Sec. Lansing today for intervention by the United States in behalf of the Jews in Roumania.

THE WEATHER

Washington, Nov. 21.—Cloudy tonight. Probably local snows in the interior. Friday cloudy. Moderate winds mostly north and northwest.

HELD GATHERING.

The Four Leaf Clover Society met in the vestry of the Court Street Christian church on Tuesday evening. After a short business meeting a social hour was engaged and light refreshments served.

(By Associated Press)

American Headquarters in France, Tuesday, Nov. 21.—American military efforts in France in concrete figures as obtained by the Associated Press were made permissible for publication today. On the date of signing the armistice, Nov. 11th, the United States had in France 78,391 officers and 1,881,376 men, a total of 1,959,767. There were more than 750,000 combat troops in the Argonne action alone. With the American army were brought to France 367 standard gauge locomotives and 13,171 standard gauge freight cars of American make. In addition the American army used 350 locomotives and 973 cars of foreign origin. Besides extending the use of French railways the Americans built 843 miles of standard gauge railway, 415 miles of narrow gauge and repaired for use 140 miles of German light railways. For other necessary road and transportation work the American expeditionary forces had in operation 53,000 motor vehicles. While it is not permissible to give figures showing vast stores of munitions and armament brought over and ready for use, some food figures are available. For instance, today the Americans have 350,000,000 rations of beans; 183,000,000 rations of flour and substitutes; 267,000,000 rations of milk; 161,000,000 rations of butter, or substitutes; 113,000,000 rations of sugar; 89,000,000 rations of meat; 57,000,000 rations of coffee; 113,000,000 rations of rice, etc., and 761,000,000 rations of cigarettes and tobacco. In army terms one ration represents the quantity of each article each man is allowed each day. Millions of these rations have been promised the French, British, and Belgians and all were the result of home economies. Only a small part of the dock and warehouse construction by the Americans is possible to describe. At Bordeaux alone 10 steamer berths with water frontage of 1902 feet were constructed. Great docks have been built in many other ports by and for Americans and new warehouses aggregating an area of 35,000,000 square feet.

London, Nov. 21.—The British grand fleet accompanied by an American battle squadron and French cruisers steamed out at 5 o'clock this morning from its Scottish base to accept the surrender of the German battleships, battle cruisers and destroyers. A wire less dispatch this noon reports that it got into touch with the German ships this morning and that the surrender was being carried out according to plans.

CHAIRMAN HAYS TALKS OVER SLATE

Washington, Nov. 21.—Organization of the next Congress, especially as it related to the House, Speaker and appointment of chairman of Senate committees was discussed today by Wm. Hays, chairman of the Republican National Committee with party leaders of both houses.

AMERICANS PASS THROUGH LUXEMBURG

(By Associated Press)

Paris, Nov. 21.—American troops will pass through Luxembourg today. Gen. Pershing, who is accompanying the forces, will call on Grand Duchess Marie Adelaide, while he is in her capital city. A proclamation has been addressed to the people of Luxembourg announcing that the passage of the American troops through their country is necessary and requesting the discipline and friendliness of the soldiers toward the population.

MEN RELEASED TO BE PLACED IN RESERVE

(By Associated Press)

Washington, Nov. 21.—Nearly all officers and men released under the Navy demobilization plan, Secretary Daniels said today, would be placed in reserve so as to be available in case of emergency. He expressed the belief that practically every man now in the navy would desire to maintain some connection with the establishment. Where men desired to sever all connection, he added, some method would be found for their discharge.

PRESIDENT WILL TAKE BIG STAFF TO FRANCE

To Remain An Indefinite Time--Has Not Picked American Delegation--It May Include McCall

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Nov. 20.—There were no developments on the surface today in the preparation for President Wilson's visit to France and the selection of the American delegation who will sit with him at the peace conference. All arrangements are under way and the announcement of the program may be expected at any time.

Members of the Senate who attended the Senate conference with the President last night informed their colleagues today that there was no doubt but what the President intends to remain in France indefinitely or until the order, calling attention to the present uneasy feeling that pervades the naval personnel regarding demobilization and the natural desire for return to civil life.

The letter will point out there must be no let-up in naval efforts and that the entire army must be brought home before the work of the navy can be considered finished.

The admiral will state no orders have come for curtailing the force and it is expected there will be plenty of work for some time. Persons in the service who have urgent reasons for quick dismissal are asked to state their cases fully and they will be given due consideration.

DOVER

Dover, Nov. 21.—Mayor Fred C. Amos has been re-nominated unanimously by the Republicans, and Charles G. Waldron has been named by the Democrats to oppose him as a candidate in the city election, next Tuesday, Nov. 26.

At the Democratic war caucus the following candidates were named: 1.—Aldermen, Charles A. Wiggin, Frank E. Brown, councilmen, Ernest E. Kilder, Archibald J. Whittier, Joseph R. Cole, school committee, Michael J. White, selectmen, Fred J. Turner, Edward Dion, Matthew J. Long.

2.—Aldermen, Edward C. Trefethen, Louis Guilmette, councilmen, John May Jr., James P. Quinn, John Waters, school committee, John P. Ryan, selectmen, Joseph Agnew, Arthur J. Bourque, Harold F. Sherry.

3.—Aldermen, William H. Hogan, Michael Cavanaugh, councilmen, George F. Clark, Bernard Donnelly, George J. O'Neill, school committee, Lawrence Kivell, selectmen, James McCabe, Francis Hughes, James Cavanaugh.

4.—Aldermen, Everett Knoll, John W. Fowler, councilmen, Jacob Tilton, John Mellen, Charles Cronin, school committee, James McDonough, selectmen, John F. McKenna, Philip Hughes, Patrick Loughlin.

Walter S. Mussey has sold his old slaughterhouse and land near the Franklin and Tilton railroad bridge to James Morrissey.

Mrs. E. M. Druke was called to Danbury yesterday on account of the funeral of her brother, W. E. Hastings, at that place. He died Monday at his home in Barre, Vt., where he was foreman in a machine shop. He was 58 years of age and a native of Grafton.

Rev. Arthur H. Sargent of Franklin was in town yesterday, calling on friends.

Winsor C. Poole has been confined to his home for several days with an acute attack of stomach trouble.

WILL REDUCE FARES FOR RETURNED SOLDIERS

Washington, Nov. 21.—Director General McAdoo has announced his intention of establishing a reduced passenger rate of two cents a mile instead of the usual three cents, for soldiers returning to their homes after discharge from the army. By law soldiers are allowed three and one-half cents a mile for transportation and meals and the special fare will enable them Mr. McAdoo believes, to buy meals and pay for sleeping car reservations out of the allowance.

ONE HUNDRED SAILORS TO TAKE "FLU" TEST

A reappearance of the "flu" in various sections and with a few new cases in this city, should cause our citizens to take proper care of colds. Boston has started another scare where many now cases have developed.

One hundred naval enlisted men have volunteered for service, as experimental subjects in an investigation of the disease by the navy department. The public health hospital at Gallipoli Island, Boston, is being used for the investigation.

SANER COUNCILS DICTATE POLICY

Convening of Constituent Assembly Being Urged to Aid in Peace Negotiations.

(By Associated Press)
Berlin, Nov. 21, via Amsterdam.—For the first time since the founding of the German empire the "Mittelteil" was played by a German band, heading a procession down Unter den Linden today.

Present indications are that saner councils will dictate governmental policy in Germany. The convening of the constituent assembly is being urged in diplomatic and political quarters not identified with the present cabinet on the sole ground that it will facilitate peace negotiations.

It is believed that Hugo Haase, secretary for foreign affairs, and Wilhelm Dittmann, secretary of demobilization, transport, justice and health, are receding from the attitude that the new republic is to be purely Socialistic. The more moderate members of the government are not disposed to rigidly exclude bourgeois elements from the government. Dr. Karl Liebknecht, the leader of the radicals, is apparently deserted by his former colleagues.

Secretary Haase, in reply to the correspondent's inquiry as to the cabinet's program said today:

"At present we are devoting our efforts solely to urgent questions. Every hour produces new problems. The national assembly can be convened only when the qualified voters list is completed. One of the greatest difficulties encountered is the compilation of the list of women voters, who now have the ballot. A new record of the eligible male voters is also needed and the soldiers returning from the front must be given opportunity to establish legal residences. We propose to invite the co-operation of bourgeois parties in our various departments."

As a result of an attack on police headquarters and resistance by the police to soldiers, sixteen members of the police force have been executed. The police complained that they had been kept in ignorance of the progress of the revolution by higher officials, who deserted or hid when the headquarters were attacked.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sorrow complexion—dirty blood under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dark eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all diseases come from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the standard for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that exuberance of spirit that nature's buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of poisons.

You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color and the fact that they are made in the U. S. A.

GERMAN LOSSES TO OCT 31, 1,580,000 IN KILLED ALONE

Copenhagen, Nov. 21.—Up to Oct. 31, 1,580,000 German soldiers were killed and the fate of 269,000 was not known, the Vorwaerts of Berlin says. It learns on reliable authority.

Four million soldiers had been wounded, some several times. The newspaper adds that there were 450,000 German prisoners in hostile countries.

DEMAND A NATION WIDE STRIKE

Metal Trades Council ask Strike as Pro- test of the Execution of Thomas Mooney

(By Associated Press)
Seattle, Wash., Nov. 20.—Telegrams sent today by the Seattle Metal Trade Council to the American Federation of Labor, asked that a general nation-wide strike be ordered as a protest against the execution of Thomas

Mooney for murder arising out of the bomb outrage in San Francisco. It not only urges that the strike be nation-wide in this country, but urges that the British labor leaders be asked to declare a strike in England and Canada.

SURRENDER FIRST OF GERMAN U-BOATS

(By Associated Press)
London, Nov. 20.—Surrender of the first division of the German submarines, a fleet of twenty boats, was accomplished at sea this morning. It was officially announced this evening. There are 80 more of these underwater boats which will be turned over to the Allies some time this week and all will be interned in British waters with Allied crews until their final disposition is known. The German crews will, as soon as they are gathered together, be sent back to Germany on a transport.

RED CROSS TO CONTINUE WORK

The following general message to Red Cross workers will be of interest to the faithful women of this city who have done so much work during the war.
"On February 10 last year, nearly six weeks before the United States declared war, National Red Cross Headquarters advised its Chapters to prepare for war. That which has followed in the record of the Red Cross in helping to win this war and to relieve the suffering growing out of it, constitutes something of which every American citizen has a right to be proud. Every American Red Cross worker must feel a sense of gratitude in having had a share in it all.

The moment is now come to prepare for peace. Actual peace may come at any moment; it may be deferred for some time. Until real peace here there can be no relaxation in any Red Cross effort incident to active hostilities.

But even with peace, let no one suppose that the work of the Red Cross is finished. Millions of American boys are still under arms. Thousands of them are sick or wounded. Owing to the shortage in shipping, it may take a year or more to bring our boys home from France. But whatever the time, our protecting arms must be about them and their families over the whole period which must elapse before the normal life of peace can be resumed.

Our soldiers and sailors are enlisted until the Commander in Chief tells them there is no more work for them to do in the war. Let every Red Cross member and worker show our returning soldiers and sailors that to care for their health, welfare and happiness, we are enlisted for no less a period than they are.

The cessation of war will reveal a picture of misery such as the world has never seen before, especially in the many countries which cannot help themselves. The American people will expect the Red Cross to continue to act as their agent in repelling broken spirits and broken bodies. Peace terms and peace conditions will determine how we may best administer to the vast stricken areas which have been harrowed by war, and in this great act of mercy, the heart and spirit of the American people must continue to

On behalf of the War Council, we accordingly ask each member of our splendid body of workers throughout the land to bear in mind the solemn obligation which rests upon each one to "carry on." We cannot abate one instant in our efforts in our spirit. There will be an abundance of work to do, and special advice will be given, but even at the moment of peace let no Red Cross worker falter.

OLD FRENCH PROVINCE REJOICES

(By Associated Press)
Paris, Nov. 20.—The French official statement as to the advance of the French troops into German territory stated that the French army is now in Givet, having advanced through Waucoune, Prometer and Maseuville. Eight thousand allied prisoners were found at Givet with a large quantity of war stores. New Chateau was reached where the army was greeted by the greatly pleased people. The line extends from Verlain and Loguer to Le Glise and Lavelle.

TO CONTROL STOCK ISSUES FOR SOME TIME

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Nov. 20.—Secretary of the Treasury Mellon and members of the Capital Issue Company today agreed that the committee should continue indefinitely. The control of stocks and bonds was very necessary in the floating of future bonds and it is expected that at least $5,000,000,000 will be asked for before the end of the year; $2,000,000,000 is expected from war savings.

President Wilson at the Peace Table. Why Not?

President Wilson has decided to attend the Peace Conference and from this newspaper's point of view it is most desirable that he should. It is true that his policies as laid down have largely governed the Allies in their decisions from time to time. The cry and howl by some of the people of the President should not leave the country in the hands of many silly. This great republic of ours can get along and prosper with the President out of the country for a few weeks. It is an awful admission of our incompetency to say that the country would be in danger. The President will by his presence give an excellent demonstration of what a true democracy we have here and as our spokesman he will give an excellent impression to the nations of the world.

Wilson Goes to France.

There is widespread interest in the announcement that President Wilson has decided to attend the peace conference, and some difference of opinion as to the propriety of his so doing. It has not been customary for presidents of the United States to leave the country while in office, and the coming trip of President Wilson to Europe is spoken of as "precedent-breaking." But it will break no precedent except as it will be the first visit of an American president to Europe while holding his office.

Otherwise there is plenty of precedent for Mr. Wilson's action. President Harrison visited Canada and President Taft visited Mexico, and both President Roosevelt and President Taft went to the Canal Zone while they were in office. Consequently such misgiving as there may be in this instance over the "breaking of precedent" would seem to be misplaced.

But while in some respects the President's course may seem like a bold step, it must be remembered that we are living in a time when bold steps are the order of the day. The country and the world have just been through experiences which make haggling over precedent appear extremely petty. There is serious business to be done at the peace conference, and it is safe to say that no man will have greater influence in that body than President Wilson. As the head of the nation which admittedly turned the tide in the war his views will command the respectful attention of all the nations represented in the conference, which have accepted his famous "fourteen points" as the basis on which the final settlements will be made. The President will not remain throughout the conference, but will be present at the opening and make unmistakably clear the position of the great nation he has the honor to represent. His capacity to do this as it ought to be done is known to all men.

Woodrow Wilson is today a great world figure. His conduct of this country's part in the war has been such as to display remarkable judgment and leadership, and he is recognized by all nations, not excluding Germany, as one of the world's leading seers and statesmen. That he will exert a profound influence on the conference goes without saying, and that influence will be exercised for the good of all concerned.

For these reasons it is well that the President should go to France. It will be an unusual step, but we are becoming accustomed to the unusual. The United States will be represented by a noble delegation, but the presence of Mr. Wilson will exert an influence that would otherwise be lacking, and this is a case in which the best, and that in full measure, will be none too good.

It is no wonder that federal officers in Boston became suspicious when they saw what purported to be barrels of potatoes marked for shipment to Maine, where potatoes are grown on a larger scale than in almost any other state. Of course when the barrels were opened they were found to contain bottled whiskey. That is what Maine imports—not potatoes.

The War Department contemplates landing home-coming troops at home ports so far as possible, and this should mean the landing of New Hampshire troops at Portsmouth. It is the place where they should be landed. So far as their reception is concerned the people of Portsmouth and vicinity will attend to that.

New Hampshire went well over its quota in the Fourth Liberty Loan and was up to the mark in its support of the drive for the War Work Fund. The Granite State is always "there with the goods" when there is unselfish and meritorious work to be done.

It is announced that there will be no reduction of railroad men's wages and no lowering of fares and freight rates under peace conditions. But will the country be entirely satisfied with such results of "government ownership?"

IMPRESSIVE SURRENDER OF SUBMARINES

Wonderful Pictures in the Moonlight.

London, Nov. 20 (British Wireless Service)—The following account of the surrender of the first batch of 20 German submarines which was accomplished this morning at sea, is given by an eye witness of the incident. More than 80 German submarines are to be handed over to the allied naval commander before the end of the week.

After steaming some 20 miles across the North sea the Harwich forces, which consisted of five light cruisers and 20 destroyers, were sighted. The flagship of Admiral Tyrwhitt, the commander, was the Curacao. High above the squadron hung a big observation balloon.

The squadron, headed by the flagship, then steamed toward the Dutch coast. The flagship was followed by the Coventry, Dragon, Danube and Centaur. Other ships followed in line with their navigation lights showing. The picture was a noble one as the great vessels, with the moon still shining, ploughed their way to take part in the surrender of the German U-boats.

Soon after the British squadron started the "prisoners" were dropped overboard. These devices are shaped like tops and diver any mines which may be encountered, for the vessels were now entering a mine field.

First Submarine Appears. Almost every one on board donned a life belt, and just as the red sun appeared above the horizon the first German submarine appeared in sight.

Soon after 7 o'clock 20 submarines were seen in line, accompanied by two German destroyers, the Tibania and the Sierra Ventana, which were to take the submarine crews back to Germany after the transfer.

All the submarines were on the surface with their hatches open and their crews standing on deck. The vessels were flying no flags whatever, and their guns were trained fore and aft, in accordance with the terms of surrender.

A bugle sounded on the Curacao and all the gun crews took up their stations, ready for any possible treachery.

The leading destroyer, in response to a signal from the admiral, turned and led the way toward England, and the submarines were ordered to follow. They immediately did so. The surrender had been accomplished.

Each cruiser turned and, keeping a careful lookout, steamed toward Harwich. On one of the largest of the submarines, which carried two 5.9 guns, 23 officers and men were counted on her deck. The craft was estimated to be nearly 300 feet in length. Its number had been painted out.

Near the Ship Wash lightship, three large British seaplanes, followed by an airship, were observed. The Harwich forces and the sea planes and airship made a most impressive sight.

Carrier Pigeon Sending Halted. One of the submarines was seen to send up a couple of carrier pigeons, and at once a signal was flashed from the admiral that it had no right to do this.

When the ships had cleared the mine field and entered the war channel the "prisoners" were hailed aboard. On reaching a point some 20 miles off Harwich, the ships dropped anchor, and Capt. Addison came out on the warship Maidstone.

British crews were then put on board the submarines to take them into harbor. With the exception of the engine staffs all the German sailors remained on deck. The submarines were then taken through the gates of the harbor and the German crews were transferred to the transports which will take them back to Germany.

As the boats went through the gates the white ensign was run up on each of them with the German flag underneath.

Each German submarine commander at the transfer was required to sign a declaration to the effect that his vessel was in running order, that its periscope was intact, that its torpedoes were unloaded and that its torpedo heads were safe.

Orders had been issued forbidding any demonstration, and these instructions were obeyed to the letter. There was complete silence as the submarines surrendered and as the crews were transferred. So ended an historic event and the first portion of the German submarine fleet is now in the hands of the British navy.

PEOPLE'S OPINIONS

Thanks The Herald

I wish to thank you for the article in your paper of Nov. 12th and for several previous articles in which you praised the work of the Naval Band. I am very much pleased to know that the people of Portsmouth appreciate the kind of music we play and that they consider the band second to none in the navy.

MISS RUTH HARMON, FAVORITE AT THE ATLANTIC.

Miss Ruth Harmon, daughter of Master Mechanic Harmon of the Atlantic Corporation, has taken an active part in the United War Work drive, which closed on Wednesday. She made an address to the men the other day which made a hit. It was as follows: Men, if you were wet, tired, dirty, muddy, and two thousand miles from home, wouldn't you be glad if somebody gave you a chance to clean up to clean and dry your clothes, have a good bath, some good home-cooked food, and then sit down in a good comfortable place and look at magazines or write a letter to your little girl or boy, or other dear ones at home? I guess you would be glad if you got that chance.

Previous to my transfer to this navy yard in 1916 I was, for over six years in charge of what was considered the best band in the Atlantic Fleet. This band was composed entirely of Filipinos. It was organized during the trip around the world in 1905 and the majority of the members were mess attendants, only a few being able to play any kind of instruments. They were rated on account of the shortage of musicians in the fleet and they were ordered to the U. S. S. Connecticut. Bandmaster Negro examined them and claimed that he could not form a band out of them. They were transferred to the U. S. S. Georgia. The Navy Department sent five bandmasters at different times who each in turn asked for a transfer stating that they could not make the men understand them and that the men had no knowledge whatever of music, most of them only playing by ear.

The Navy Department then sent a colored bandmaster who could speak their language, he put in for a discharge. When he would try to correct them they would refuse to do their duty and if he put them on report the Captain would have to overlook it as they could not speak English. They would claim that they could "not savvy."

At this time I re-enlisted after staying in civilian life from May 15, 1905 to Nov. 5, 1909, and took charge of this band. I gave them instructions, free of charge, to prove that these men could be made into musicians. I organized a mandolin club composed of twelve pieces which was the only one in the Navy. Inside of two years I had the best band and orchestra in the Atlantic Fleet. It became known as the famous "Filipino band" of the Navy. I noticed a reference to it in one of your papers which was sent to me by a friend from here when I was in charge of that band. Commander In-Chief Osterhaus sent a message to Washington to that effect, the lumber Admiral Howard of the U. S. S. Georgia in which he praised the band and the orchestra as the best in the fleet. The message was posted on the ship and left there for several weeks. We were called upon to play for all the parties and dances given by the officers of the fleet.

In 1912 the enlistments expired of this band all together. Captain Johnson, commanding officer of the Georgia requested of the Navy Department that the ship might have another Filipino band. The Navy Department then sent me a second supply of musicians which are now in the fleet, all qualified men.

My reasons for publishing this letter are that when I had charge of the Filipino band several bandmasters in the Navy remarked that with an American band I would not have as good results. In this band, here in the Navy Yard, I have no Filipinos, and these men thoroughly understand my instructions. I wish to have it understood that I can handle an American as well as a Filipino band.

At the last two concerts we gave here in town we were nine men short. We rate twenty-eight men whereas all we have is nineteen.

The band and I wish to extend our thanks to Admiral and Mrs. Bouché, Captain and Mrs. Almy, and Commander and Mrs. Palmer for their in-

NAVY YARD NOTES

Two Enlistments in. Sergeant Major L. M. King of the local marine barracks has completed his second enlistment and returned to his home in Memphis, Tenn., for a short period.

Deserved Promotion. Philip H. Tuf, a first musician in the yard naval band, has been advanced of the rank of ensign. The promotion was much merited on the part of Mr. Tuf and his new rank is pleasing news to his friends in the band and this city, where he has been located for the past three years, coming from Cornwall, Conn.

At Rifle Range. Twenty men from the marine guard left a few days ago in charge of Sergeant L. L. McAvoy for three weeks' target practice at the Wakefield rifle range.

Eleut. Hartley of the local yard barracks one of the experts in shooting in the service, will have charge of the entire guard from full station while the period of practice is carried out.

Over the 10,000 Mark. The latest report has it that the United War fund collections would reach a little over $10,000.

Will Send It Here. Ninety-eight barrels of lumber are at the Charlestown yard for unloading. The authorities there found that such lumber would take up most all available space and after wiring Washington to that effect, the lumber was ordered to Portsmouth and Norfolk yards.

Italian Tag Day. Saturday will be observed as Tag Day at the Charlestown yard, the proceeds to go toward the Italian relief. By order of Commandant William R. Rush, the Italian colors will be flown at all gates, with the big Italian flag flying from the elm tree inside the main gate. In the morning the colors will be hoisted at 7 o'clock, an hour earlier than usual.

Call For Help. Only. The call for the Industrial Department issued today requires 15 general helpers and 15 shipyard's helpers.

Sent Out S. O. S. Call. A telegram received at the Boston yard on Wednesday from Rear Admiral Cowie at Washington, who has charge of the navy end of the war drive, urges the men to give more, and he says that while the contribution of the navy is fine it is not fine enough. The drive closed on Wednesday at midnight.

Admiral Speyer Dead. Rear Admiral Arthur Bayard Speyer, U. S. N., retired, of this city, a veteran of the Civil and Spanish wars, died yesterday in a hospital in Montreal after an operation.

DR. JUNKINS WRITES OF EARTHQUAKE

The following letter was received today by the editor from Dr. William O. Junkins of this city, who is now at Biloxi, Miss., to pass the winter.

Nov. 16, 1918.
My dear Mr. Hartford:
I have recently received from our mutual friend Nathaniel A. Wadcott, U. S. Commissioner of Porto Rico, a printed in San Juan of Oct. 11th describing the recent earthquake in Porto Rico of Oct. 11. The loss of life and property are appalling. An appeal has been made directly by Charles Harrell, chairman of the Porto Rico Chapter of the American Red Cross at Washington, asking if it were not possible to have an immediate relief fund of $10,000 raised from Washington at once.

Yours sincerely,
W. O. JUNKINS.

The paper which accompanied this letter tells of much suffering after the earthquake and the terror and dread of the earth shaking beneath them again and adding their houses down on their heads and a large part of the people of the island could be reassured only by their belief in the efficacy of prayers and thousands of people sought comfort in this way. Possible in every mind was the same thought to call upon God, even though he knew the lines that "Prayer" wrote, "More things are wrought by prayer than this world dreams of." Both in and outside the churches was a procession of people asking God's mercy. The earthquake shook all Porto Rico, causing the paper to state "a loss of life that may reach 200 and property damage that is conservatively estimated at $5,000,000."

GUARD FROM FORT ESCORTS MEN TO CAMP

Wild Rumors Start When Men Are Discharged From Lumber Camps at Intervale.

On Tuesday a guard composed of two non-commissioned officers and eight privates from Fort Constitution were ordered to report at Intervale, N. H., to escort several draftees who had been engaged in lumbering on the Conway Lumber Company, to Camp Devens.

The presence of the armed guard on the train and in the North country gave rise to a variety of rumors, especially when the men marched into the army cantonment at Ayer under guard.

One rumor had it that the men who were from the several army camps throughout the country, refused to work and engaged in mutiny.

Another report was circulated that the guard from the fort were rounding up a gang of slinkers, etc.

There was no real cause for such reports. The men numbering between 10 or 20, had been granted an indefinite furlough from the several camps to engage in essential work and were assigned to the several lumber camps in and about Intervale and Conway. The company had completed the work and the men were discharged. It was feared that they might possibly start something in the way of a peace celebration on the train as it was their first time out of the woods in many weeks.

The army simply provided escort for them to Camp Devens, the nearest training camp where they will be sent to the various other camps and later released from the service.

Percy Warren Caswell, pastor of the Court Street Christian church, will regret to hear that he is ill, and two children, with the influenza, at the residence on Istington street. Rev. Mr. Caswell was taken ill Sunday afternoon, but in reported more comfortable this morning. The baby is now improving, but the young son is still quite ill with the disease.

Rev. John E. Everingham and family have recently come here from Maine and taken up their residence on Court street, this city, he having taken a position at the city hall. Rev. Mr. Everingham was at his first pastorate of the Christian church at Rye, N. H., and has held pastorates at Lacombe and other places. Mrs. Everingham was formerly Miss Florence Coleman of this city, daughter of the late Wilby Coleman.

FINAL FIGURES ARE NOT YET AVAILABLE

Although Wednesday was officially the last day of the United Drive the local committee was unable to get a definite figure on the total collection from this city, as some of the plants have not made their complete returns at present.

The city has, however, gone well over the quota, in fact there is more than the quota already in the bank, but the Atlantic Corporation have not made their returns, neither have the Shattuck, while the Navy Yard and Naval Prison have still some returns to make. As all of these places are sure to make good returns, the Atlantic especially, striving for a hundred per cent yard, the city's quota is a sure thing to be

SHIP YARD ON EIGHT-HOUR DAY

The Atlantic corporation beginning today will go on the regular eight-hour schedule and no more overtime. The hours will be from 7.30 to 12 noon and from 1.00 to 4.30 p. m. The yard up to this time has been working on the nine-hour schedule with the extra hour overtime.

The Corporation also began paying the back pay for October, which was due owing to the wage award. Some of the men were paid this week and more are to be paid each day until it is cleared up.

RED CROSS ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the Portsmouth Chapter of the Red Cross will be held at the council chamber at 1.30 this afternoon, and the annual reports of some of the activities of the year will be made. This chapter has done excellent work, in fact it rates as well as the most of the larger chapters and has turned out a great amount of work in all its branches. The chapter includes, in addition to this city, branches at Rye, North Hampton, New Castle and Greenland.

COUNT FIFTY! NO NEURALGIA PAIN

Don't suffer! Instant relief follows a rubbing with old "St. Jacobs Liniment."

Conquers pain—never fails. Rub soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs Liniment" right on the aching or painful, and out comes the neuralgia misery.

Here's a joyful experiment! Try it! Get a small trial bottle from your druggist, pour a little in your hand and rub it gently on the sore, aching nerves, and before you realize it—in just a moment—all pain and neuralgia disappear. It's almost magical, but the joy is, that the misery doesn't come back. No! The nerves are soothed and congestion is relieved and your neuralgia is overcome.

Stop suffering! It's needless—neuralgia and pain of all kinds, either in the face, head, limbs or any part of the body, is instantly banished. "St. Jacobs Liniment" is perfectly harmless and doesn't burn or discolor the skin. In use for half a century.

TO THE PUBLIC

This invitation is intended to reach especially those people in this vicinity who are particularly interested in (1) The Navy Yard's future; (2) The matter of a New Free Bridge; (3) The matter of holding our ship-building business.

All agree that this is the most critical time in our history industrially. It is to confer with you on our duty and desires in these matters that I am asking you to meet me at the large restaurant in the Rockingham hotel on Thursday evening, Nov. 21, at 8 o'clock.

It is necessary for me to prepare myself for my work as governor in advance of talking office, and you will therefore assist me, and I hope, yourselves, if you will attend in large numbers and be free with your suggestions.

I particularly desire the presence of all existing organizations, such as the Chamber of Commerce, the Navy Yard Improvement Association, the Dover Organization and citizens' delegations from Kittery and Elliot, Rye and New Castle, Newington and Greenland, and in fact all who will come from as far as feel any interest in the objects in view; also navy yard heads and ship-building plant heads. Our interests are common.

This is entirely free from politics. Let your presence help matters as well as your advice. Let no one stay away because he does not feel invited, for he is invited. I am too busy to send personal invitations.

I realize that I shall not be "governor" of Kittery and Elliot, but my desire is to get together all who have a common interest to serve.

Yours very truly,
JOHN H. BARTLETT.
Portsmouth, Nov. 18, 1918.

which was a success, but hard luck with their second show when some of the feature people failed to show up, and profiting by the experience Manager Jim Flynn has made their appearance this evening secure by making them post forfeits with the sporting editor of this paper, large enough to make it costly to fail to meet their contract. The feature bout will be between Finley Boyle of Lowell and Billy Woods of Manchester and both boys are now in this city.

Woods is stationed at the fort and Boyle came Wednesday evening. Those who have seen Woods work are satisfied that he is a rugged two handed boxer and in Boyle he will meet a boy who will be just as willing as he.

The semi-final between Charlie Parker of Roxbury and Johnny Gray of Boston brings two new boys to this city. Both lads have, however, a reputation well earned in the larger clubs about Boston, and Parker on Wednesday evening got a decision at the big Armory meet in the semi-final bout. Gray is equally as well known.

Charlie Tremblay of the Marine Corps will meet Young Genevan of the navy and it promises to be a rattling good bout. Tremblay is a coming boy.

Billy Hamilton, the Boston Herald sporting writer, will referee the bouts, which insure fast action and plenty of it.

COMEDY MAKES A HIT AT THE COLONIAL

The Colonial Theatre was packed to its capacity with every seat taken and crowds standing, and it was a well pleased audience with the A. H. Wood's production of the farce comedy, "Parlor, Bedroom and Bath," a comedy in three acts in which there is action and fun enough for everybody.

The characters are all funny and the entire production excellent. It was staged and costumed in the usual style of this producer and the members of the cast were all "hand picked."

Grace Ellsworth as Polly Hathaway, the society reporter, who agrees to educate Reginald Irving in the person of Walter Perkins, were the leads and they were excellent. Miss Ellsworth keeps the stage moving while she is around and Mr. Perkins was very funny in his part. Raymond Hildley made the best of his part and in fact the entire cast did all that could be desired. A foot note on the program explained that "All male members of the company have fulfilled their obligations to their respective governments."

WILL MAKE CROSS COUNTRY FLIGHTS

Washington, Nov. 21.—In preparation for the development of aeroplanes for peace-time purposes, trained air pilots of the United States army will make a series of cross-country reconnaissance flights to chart important air lanes, compile air maps, locate landing fields and select sites for airbases.

The war department announced today that, beginning Friday army planes from flying fields in various parts of the country will begin a series of flights between the principal cities in their districts for the charting of air lanes that will eventually become part of a "great chain" of air-lining every important community in the country.

SHOWN THE GOODS THAT MAKE DRUNKS

Rev. Mr. Robbins of the Anti-Saloon League was here on Wednesday and he was shown an exhibition at the police station of the stuff that is causing the drunks about this city at present. Jamaica ginger, lemon extract, hair tonic, in fact anything that has a great proportion of alcohol are being used by the drunks, who mix it with the beer or the sweet cider, or even drink it plain.

The greater number of drunks who are arrested in this city now are drunk of this variety and they are drunk all over as a rule.

LOOK AT CHILD'S TONGUE IF SICK CROSS, FEVERISH

When constipated or bilious give "California Syrup of Figs."

Look at the tongue! mother! if coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once. When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad, has stomach-ache, sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without gripping, and you have a well, playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to "take" this harmless "Fruit Laxative," they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid.

Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. To be sure you get the genuine, ask to see that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

ADJOURNMENT OF CONGRESS TODAY

Washington, Nov. 21.—Senate and house leaders Wednesday completed arrangements for the ending today of the present session of congress, so that members may have a brief vacation before the third and last session opens Dec. 2.

A few obstacles to the progress developed today, but leaders believed they will serve only to postpone adjournment for a few hours. Senators Watson of Indiana and Sherman of Illinois, Republicans were expected to address the senate in criticism of President Wilson's action in taking control of cable wires after the signing of the armistice, while Senator Reed of Missouri, Democrat, has prepared a speech on the plan for a league of nations.

ETERNAL TRIANGLE CAUSES TRAGEDY

Newport, R. I., Nov. 21.—A married woman's love for another man and the alleged wrongdoing of the husband were chapters that led to the killing of Mrs. Gertrude Elma Stimson by her husband, Chief Gunner's Mate, Roy Stimson of the Naval Torpedo Station, who then turned the revolver upon himself and ended his life at the home of his beautiful young wife here today.

Rear Admiral Joseph W. O'Connell, commandant of the 2d Naval District, appointed a board of investigation and court of inquiry of officers from the Torpedo Station, consisting of Commander G. S. Hathaway, Lieut. Commander N. W. Hibbs and Lieut. Jack Campbell, with yeoman Hazel O'Connell as recorder.

The effects of the couple taken from their separate boarding houses were closely scrutinized and made part of the official records. Later the officers, in company of Chief Tobin, visited the Naval Hospital, where the body of Stimson was examined.

Chief Gunner's Mate Stimson was in his third enlistment at the Navy and highly spoken of as a member of the seamen gunners' class, and in less than a month would have been graduated from the school and in line for examination for warrant officer. His enlistment record shows his wife as next of kin, giving Long Beach, Calif., as her home, and the name of his mother, Mrs. M. A. Stimson of Mt. Calin, Tex., to whom a telegram has been sent by the Naval authorities as to what disposition shall be made of her son's body. The dead woman was known to some of her friends as Joan.

Two letters, one to Stimson from an ex-shipmate, Machinist's Mate L. J. Lawrence, on the submarine P-3, not another, unaddressed and unsigned, found in Mrs. Stimson's room, furnished the key to the tragedy. Lawrence's letter, which is dated Oct. 23, follows:

"Mr. Stimson—Your letter of the 16th just reached me day before yesterday. It was not much of a surprise. I had been thinking of writing to you for sometime. I am rather glad that you have written.

"As to my feeling for Joan, it is not a passing fancy as you suggest. She means more than all else to me. No one realizes better than I that I have no right to her. I know that I've fallen a lot short of a white man's standard in making love to a shipmate's wife. I know it was not an honorable thing to do, but it's done. I'm entirely to blame for this situation and if there is any penalty for having loved that wonderful girl, I'm more than willing to be the one to suffer.

"The decision as I see rests entirely in Joan's hands. If she decides that she still loves you, I'll drop out of your lives completely. You must know though that we could not accept our happiness through your ending your life. I should be the one to drop out, though I'd not do it in that way. My feelings toward Joan will never change. I love her dearly. I've no right, I know, but I'm not trying to make any excuses. You asked me to answer your questions. I've done it, I think.

"I shall write to Joan in a few days—maybe today. I hardly know. But she will have to be the one to decide. Her happiness means more to me than anything else, and it is largely in your hands.

"Be good to her, Stimson. Sincerely, L. J. Lawrence.

"O. God, but I love you, my darling boy, better than life itself. I promised not to write to you, but my love is around you.

"Question is, should I let Roy kill me as he wishes to do? If I thought it would be better for you I should not hesitate, but death could not take me from you or yours from me. But I am afraid I'd be hurting you instead and in that case I should have to do something that seems cowardly to me.

"I should let him know as I promised, only I should write and tell him and disappear, instead of staying and facing the music, which would be to let him shoot me. I can't see why my death is necessary, nor Roy's, for that matter.

"It's wanting killing to me. He said he felt as if there was a heaven here and would go to it when he killed me. But he did not think I should, perhaps, I should not, though, I hardly agree with him as to his being sure."

"He says mind is the greatest of all sins. The more unforgivable as I loved you instead of him."

The couple had attended a theatre Tuesday night and evidently after escorting his wife home, Stimson decided to return to her boarding house, and there the tragedy of the separated pair was concluded.

The Stimons were married at Seattle on June 5, 1917, and it is believed Mrs. Stimson's home was in Pomeroy, Wash. She was educated in St. Benedictine College, Colton, Wash., according to papers found with her effects.

As the medical examiners decided Mrs. Stimson died after her husband, although but a brief period, her mother-in-law, the Naval insurance of

Speaker—DR. LINCOLN WIRT.

American Red Cross Commissioner and Popular Speaker.

Subject—"WITH OUR ARMIES IN EUROPE"

Dr. Wirt has recently returned from a visit to the British, French and Italian Fronts, under the auspices of the Red Cross. He has a complete story of the life of our boys over there. He interprets the spiritual victories of the war. His message is fresh, authoritative and comprehensive, given with his characteristic enthusiasm and spirit. It is only by special arrangement that Dr. Wirt is able to come to Portsmouth.

MEN'S GUILD HAS PLEASANT GATHERING

The Young Men's Guild held the opening meeting of the season last evening at the Baptist Annex on State street, the vice president, Earl Macdonald, presiding. After the usual routine business meeting, E. H. Williams, a former of the Atlantic Corporation, spoke on "Gold Mining in Alaska," giving some personal experience. Following the address the line was passed socially and refreshments of ice cream and cake served. There was a large attendance of members and friends and the evening was one of pleasant interest.

ATTEND CHURCH GATHERING AT SALISBURY

The annual business meeting of the Methodist churches of Dover District was held yesterday in the Methodist church at Salisbury, Mass., with a good attendance, including a number from this city.

The annual business meeting was held and officers elected for the year as follows:

President, Mrs. Grace Blaisdell, Somersworth.

First Vice President, Mrs. J. True Davis, Portsmouth.

Second Vice President, Miss Clara Webb, Lawrence, Mass.

Secretary and Treasurer, Mrs. Guy Chase, Southtown.

District Superintendent, T. Ross Hiles of Dover, gave an able address in the afternoon on "The Centenary." Miss Jessie Marlett, of Hingham, China, a returned missionary, spoke on her experiences in that country, and Miss Florence Nichols, who also had done missionary work abroad gave an interesting talk on the same subject.

At noon the visitors were served an appetizing dinner in the vestry by the women of the participating churches.

Those present from the Methodist society of this city were: Deaconess Mae Smith, Mrs. J. True Davis, Mrs. Charles E. Jenness, Mrs. Percy Plaisley, Mrs. William Brille, Mrs. Chester R. Norton, Mrs. Edward Pike, Mrs. Inez McIntire, Miss Bertha Grant.

LOCAL POLITICS WARMING UP JUST A LITTLE

Democrats Appear to Be Quite Active in Hunting
Up Candidates.

Both parties are collecting a little more speed into the coming municipal election, especially the democrats who are picking council candidates but find that majority applicants are not so numerous.

The latest dope from curbstone and inside circles has it that the democrats are working on Ex-Mayor John W. Emery to come in and head the ticket again. There is much talk of Councilman Raynes getting in line for the chair of Dr. Ladd. Also Councilman Kirkpatrick. The republicans may pick a candidate from the following: Ed. John Pender, William A. Hodgdon, Frederick B. Barrett, Judge Edward H. Adams, George B. Wallace, James A. Barthwick, Ex-Mayor H. B. Yeaton.

Among the men spoken of for the council by the republicans are: H. A. Newick, James A. McCarthy, August Hott, Thomas A. Ward, Harold M. Smith.

The democrats are bringing a proposed ticket at large with the names: Henry B. Tilton, George P. Small, Ed. Timothy W. Howard and Fred A. Gray. For ward candidates the names of Oliver W. Pease in ward 1, Robert F. Bradlee, ward 2, Timothy Donovan, ward 3, and Dr. M. A. Higgins ward 4 are mentioned. For ward 5 the party is still on the hunt for a man.

For the public works the name of Raphael Costello is heard and Ralph Walker for the board of assessors.

CLUB SEWS FOR RED CROSS

The Craft Club held an all day Red Cross sewing meeting Wednesday at the Women's Building on Middle street. The attendance was good and much work was accomplished. The club members enjoyed a basket lunch at noon, the club providing coffee.

Mrs. Carrie C. Hall of the Organized Charities gave an interesting talk in the afternoon on Red Cross activities. In her talk she referred to the Christmas boxes for the men in the service overseas and said that 160 had been given out and even now if any next of kin to a man the service has not a label one can be obtained at the Red Cross rooms.

BLOCK SIGNALS PREVENT COLLISION

Workmen's Train and Freight
Come Face to Face East of Kittery Junction.

The working of the block signal system and the strict attention to duty of two engineers prevented what might have been a bad collision between a passenger train and a freight on the Boston and Maine just east of Kittery Junction on Wednesday afternoon.

The trains concerned were No. 517, a passenger which runs from this city via Jewett to Rochester with navy yard and shipyard workmen, and an extra west bound freight. The engineers of the trains observed the cautionary movement of the blocks, and moved slowly with a flagman ahead, each not knowing what they would find ahead of them.

In a short time both locomotives loomed up in sight of each other moving slowly behind the flagman. There was no danger of a collision from the fact that both crews were complying strictly with all rules concerning train movements, but the question remained, how did the two trains get on the single track moving in opposite directions?

It appears that the leaving time of the passenger train from Portsmouth had been changed from 3:35 p. m. to 3:16 p. m. on the new schedule affecting many other trains in and out of Portsmouth on Wednesday. The freight train crew claims that they had no notice of a change in the running time of the passenger train and reckoned on arriving at Portsmouth before the Rochester train was due.

PRISONER ESCAPES IN OFFICER'S UNIFORM

Had Been at Naval Prison
Only a Few Days; Had Three-Year Term.

Walter E. Richards, a seaman in the U. S. Navy, did not make a very long stay at the Portsmouth naval prison. Richards was sentenced for a three year term by a court martial board at Philadelphia and arrived only a few days ago to begin his prison life. Today while working with other prisoners aboard one of the ships he succeeded in securing the uniform of an ensign which he quickly changed for the gray rig and had no trouble in getting out the main gate with other officers and enlisted men passing through.

Shortly after the getaway was reported it was learned that Richards took one of the small passenger boats from Kittery to Portsmouth.

The local police were notified by the authorities at the navy yard.

SHOE TALKS

For Tramping

A long walk is the best prescription in the world for health, but many want to be careful to wear the proper shoes for these rambles. We picture here a shoe that has been built for true service. It has a medium heel, not too high, or not too low. Just the proper height for this use. Either tan or black leather and in every way the best value procurable.
